

The Hunny Spot

A farm-to-table dining experience

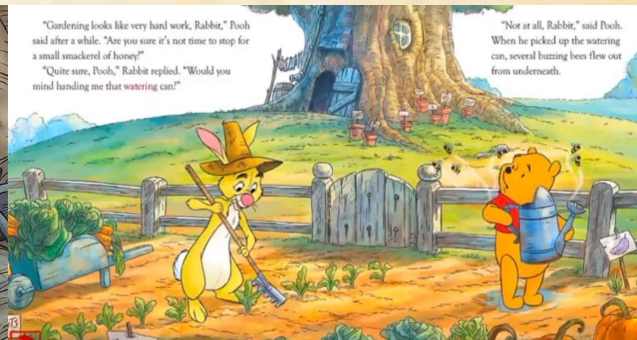

Purpose

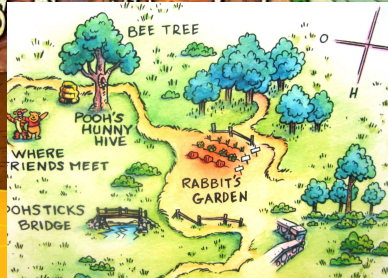

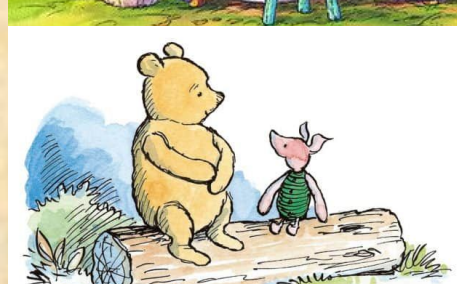

- This Winnie the Pooh centric dining experience will encompass the ideals of a farm-to-table restaurant while providing guests with an interactive environment inspired by one of their favorite childhood stories.
- Part of the experience will be having those dining collect their own ingredients from the maintained garden inside of the restaurant that will belong to Rabbit.
- The whole experience will be themed after the Hundred Acre Wood and will have Easter eggs and elements from the book and movies scattered throughout.
- This includes having a lightness and nostalgia that is purely Winnie the Pooh.

Emotional Research

"Gardening looks like very hard work, Rabbit," Pooh said after a while. "Are you sure it's not time to stop for a small snacked of honey?"
"Quite sure, Pooh," Rabbit replied. "Would you mind handing me that watering can?"
"Not at all, Rabbit," said Pooh. When he picked up the watering can, several buzzing bees flew out from underneath.
